Hammer Robert Bonner Buys Mand C. Nonator McCarty Pays $5,730 for Fred Kohl and Fred S. Moody-Other Sales, Contrary to expectation, the closing day of Peter C. Kellogg's auction sale of trotting stock at Madison Square Garden developed a rising market. Millionaire horsemen were more numerous than ever in the sale ring, and they were in a mood for buying. With few excep-tions the well-bred animals of individual merit found ready buyers, and at prices which the experts pronounced quite satisfactory in view of the hard times. William Cor-bit, the California breeder who gained prominence through the doings of Guy Wilkes and his get; Frank Rockefeller of Cleveland, John H. Shults, E. T. Bedford, Gen. B. F. Tracy, John F. Durges, and E. T. Stotesbury of Philadelphia were among the principal consignors, while such preminent orsemen as Robert Bonner, A. A. Bonner, E. H. Harriman, John H. Shults, James W. Daly, Frank Rockefeller, Senator John McCarty, Charles H. Kerner, Peter Duryea, F. P. Olcott and C. W. Schluchtner, President of the Park-way Driving Club, figured in the list of pur-

Some of the best animals in the Corbitt collection had been reserved for the last day of the ale. One of these was the black trotting tailion Fred Kohl, that trotted to a record of 2:1214 as a three-year-old, cutting it down to 9:1234 in Grand Circuit company last year. After spirited bidding he was knocked down to Franz Ehrilg of Beston for $2,550, but the pur-chase was made for Senator John McCarty of Brooklyn, who owns a number of fast ones. John H. Shults bought Mystic, the dam of Fred Kohl, for $1,600. She is also the dam of Mystery, that died on the track last season after trotting to a record of 2:17% for Ed Bowne, who trained her for Shulta. Senator McCarty's gent again outlasted all other bidders when the fast four-year-old gelding, Fred S. Moody, was sold. This youngster took a record of 2:14 in the first heat of the Kentucky Futurity in 1896, and Gil Curry says he timed him a mile in 2:1116 over the Cleveland track last August. The consensus of opinion was that the Brook-lyn horseman got a bargain at $3,200, the highest price of the day. Fred S. Moody is by Guy Wilkes, out of the great brood mare Montrose, that died en route from California. He is a full brother to Mary Best, 2:1234, and to Muta Gil Curry, acting for a wealthy New York horseman, paid $1,200 for Montie, a four-year old full brother to Moody. This gelding trotted in 2:17 in his work last year, although he is without a public record. Montie will go into the training stable of John Kelly at Fleetwood Park. The soled brood mare Blanche, dam of Walter S. Hobart's fast trotter, Hazel Wilkes, 2:115, and Col. Oliver H. Pane's good road mare. Una Wilkes, 2:15, was purchased by Charles H. Kerner for $025. Frank Rockefeller bought a two-year-old full sister to Hazel Wilkes and Una Wilkes for $375.

The well-known Fleetwood trotter, Hilds S., 2:154, a daughter of Stamboul, 2:0736, and H. O. Havemeyer's $5,300 brood mare Hinds Wilkes, went to her former trainer, Fred Noble, after sharp competition. The price was $1,900. Later in the day Noble resold the beautiful young trotter to E. H. Harriman, owner of Stamboul, for an advance on the price paid under the hammer. Noble drove Hilds S., a mile in 2:12 last season. She will be campaigned through the Orange county circuit this year by old full brother to Moody. This gelding trotted in der the hammer. Noble drove Hilda S., a mile in 2:12 last season. She will be campaigned through the Orange county circuit this year by her new owner. Harriman also bought the show mare Edna B., 2:184, by Plumstone, for $1,025. She was exhibited at the last National Horse Show by the Philadelphia horseman, E. T. Stotesbury, of Drexel, Morgan & Co. E. T. Bedford's big bay mare Wanda, 2:2134, by Pledmont, did not sell for all that her owner had expected, the final bid being $1,500.

The star of Frank Rockefeller's consignment was the last black mare Maud C., by Binderson, that Rody Patterson drove to a record of 2:10M at Dubuque, la., in June, 1895, defeating the Transylvania witner, Senator A., 2:10; Kentucky Union, 2:0734; Phosbe Wilkes, 2:08M, and Robbie P., 2:10M, in the first heat. Maud C. is said to have trotted a haif last year in 1:01M, the last quarter in 0:29, a 1:56 gait. At $2,100 the fast mare was struck off to Robert Bonner. Rockefeller says he believes her to be capable of trotting a mile in 2:05 or 2:06. Alley Bonner bought the richly bred black four-year-old filly by Nutwood, out of Panacea, the sister to Utility, 2:13. She will be bred to his father's renowned trotting sire, Alcantara, 2:25. F. P. Olcott purchased her mate, a fine bay filly, by Nutwood, out of Miss Wilkes, 2:29, by George Wilkes, for $350.

One of the last animals sold was the black mare Cocoon, 2:16, formerly owned by the late Major S. T. Dickinson. Peter Duryea got her at a bargain for $500. John F. Dingee, the Brooklyn horseman, who consigned her to the sale, paid $1,500 for the mare at the closing out of Major Pickinson's trotters a few months ago.

LAKEWOOD, Feb. 18.-The attraction for Lakewood golfers to-day was the members' weekly handicap tournament on the links of the Ocean County Hunt and Country Club for the silver loving cup presented by James Converse. silver loving cup presented by James Converse. Chauncey F. Kerr, who won it last week, came very near capturing it again to-day. He and Walthew tied with net scores of 102, and as the latter concedes five strokes to him Kerr stands a fighting chance to win to-morrow morning, when the tie will be decided. It was an ideal day for golfing, gray and cloudy, with scarcely any wind, and the turf was in good shape. The scores handed in, however, were all over the century mark. Mrs. E. Robbins Walker and Miss Add Godfrey entered the lists, but both turned in large scores, Mrs. Walker being allowed fifty strokes and Miss Godfrey twenty less. BILLIARDS. William Barnard of Brooklyn Wins the Amateur Billiard Trophy.

When William Barnard, the champion of the Montauk Club of Brooklyn, stripped off his dress coat to play the final game in the interclub amateur billiard tourney at Maurice Daly's academy last night for the championship trophy with Ferdinaud Poppenburg, the champ! of the Liederkrauz Society, the latter faced a rival for first honors whose de-meanor was like some of the icebergs that explorers of the Arctic region encounter It was a frigid calmness calculated to take the heart out of any amateur. Barnard has been through many tournaments and has learned the art of restraining his feelings. older than the impulsive young Germanthe supremacy, and a master of the art the Brooklyn amateurs, was ambitious to see the trophy go over the big bridge, and so great an adept at safety tackles that he felt confident that he could hold the star of the Liederkrans Society in complete control.

fidence that was supreme, and he resorted at carroms that have been a feature of his very effective work in the present contest for the championship. He made a single cushion shot in the fourth inning that was a regular honey ocoler.

Poggenburg seemed to be a little bit of a favorite, but his experienced rival got around the string first with an extremely well played inning that yielded a double-figure cluster of 28. This gave him a total of 127 to Poggenburg's 99. There were cheers for the latter's first shot in reply. He made s and also rounded his first string.

It got so close after this that the respective rocters held their breath in anxious suscense and let them selves out in heartlest appliance for rotters held their breath in anxious suspense and let themselves out in heartiest applause for the admirable efforts of both players.

Barnard now put up winning tactics. He outgeneralled his younger rival, and in the diversity and originality of his cushion carroma left but little to be wished for. Barnard was made to know, however, that he had tackled something that kent him thinking. He admitted this after the game, when he said that the Liederkranz expert had made it a mighty difficult thing for him to win. The score:

Barnard (200) -0.04, 20, 2, 5, 0, 4, 10, 3, 2, 1, 11, 1, 5, 5, 2, 2, 1, 18, 0, 5, 0, 10, 1, 0, 0, 9, 8, 1, 3, 7, 0, 0, 3, 0, 0, 0, 8, 0, 0, 10, 1, 6, 2, 2, 8, 0, 12, 490.

AMATEURS MIX IT UP. Hot Fighting at the Bohemian-Pastime

Another large crowd turned out last night at the arena of the Bohemian Sporting Club to see the remaining bouts of the preliminaries in the joint amateur boxing show of the Bohemian and Pastime A. C. Teddy Foley was referee, while Frank Abrahali kept time. The 125 and 135 pound classes were decided. The first bout in the 135-pound class was ex citing. The contestants were C. Adams, Yorkville A. C., and H. Meyers, Pastime A. C. The "Indian" made quite a sport in the first round and looked as though he would win. In the second round, however, he held his guard low and Adams crossed him on the jaw and knocked him down. Meyers was groggy when he arose and the referee stopped the bout and gave the verdict to Adams.

P. J. Reagan, Hickson A. C., and J. Vance. Coney Island A. C., put up a stiff argument is Coney Island A. C., put up a stiff argument in the same class, vance had a peculiar way of crouching to one side and Reagan was somewhat puzzled. In the second round Reagan landed a few straight jabs on Vance's face and the latter began to-wing wildly. In the final round Reagan directed his blows for Vance's stomach and had him in distress when the round ended. The judges would not pick a winner and Foley gave the decision to Reagan, E. Summitt, Eureka A. C., and M. Hawik, St. Bartholomew A. C., were the principals in the fourth bout. They pummelled each other for keeps. Hawik dropped Summitt in the first round with an upper cut. An extra round of two minutes was ordered, and Hawik was deciared the winner. Both men were badly punished.

Corbett Still the Payortte Here at $100 to

Very little speculation is being indulged in on the result of the fight between Corbett and Fitzsimmone. The ex-champion is still the favorite at $100 to $80, and his backers are in the majority. The supporters of Fitzsimmons, however, are keeping aloof for a while, for they believe that before long they will be able to get as much as $100 to $70 for their money. It looks now as if this city would be largely represented at the ring side. Several well-anown sporting men are getting up parties, the cost of down to $350.

Johnny Manning yesterday received another commission of $1,000 to wager on Corbett. He will give $100 to $80. Ed Nail wants to place $700 to $1,000 on Fitzsimmons, Billy Higgins yesterday wagered $100 even on Corbett with a Brooklyn man. Billy Edwards during the nast two days has made a number of wagers on Corbett and wants to invest more cash. He says he will give olds of 100 to 80. Fred Taral says he has placed saveral hundred dollars on Fitzsimmons at good odds. Fitz Will Do His Training at Cook's Ranch, Three Miles from Carson. Causon, Feb. 18 .- Martin Julian vesterday elected quarters for Fitzsimmons, and, though it has not taken him long to come to a decision. his choice is a wise one-probably the best that could be made. The place is known as Cook's Hanch. It is about three miles south of Carson, and lies in a little valley at the foot of a spur of the mountains. The dwelling house contains eight comfortable rooms, and is surrounded by a pretty grove of trees. About fifty Fards from the building is a pavilion 100 feet square, where fitz will do must of his work. His circular steel punching bag and other exercising apparatus were taken out to the ranch to-day. There are several good roads in the neighborhood, and upon these the Australian will do a great deal of leg exercise before the fight. upon these the Australian will do a great deal of leg exercise before the fight.

SALT LAKE, Feb. 18.—Bob Fitzsimmons and party arrived here at noon to-day. The champion said he was feeling well and confident he would whip Corbett in ten rounds.

He expressed himself as highly pleased with the selection of Cook's Rauch for his training quarters, particularly because the roads there are said to be good enough to ride a bleycle on. The party appeared at the firand Opera House to-night, and will leave at noon to-morrow for Carson, where they will arrive on Saturday.

ROTHESTER, Feb. 18.-Jounny Lavack of Cleveland mocked out Joe Purdy of Brooklyn here to night in the fourth round of their contest before the Rienzi A.C. The bout was stated for twenty rounds. Pur-ly's efforts to rise were painful to witness. It was evident that his dominant idea was to get at Lavack, atthough he was asleep to everything eise, and he finally did get to his feet, only to be knocked out fully shot completely. His seconds were Jack Skelly of New York and Chris Peters and teerge lifereneier of inic city. Behind Lavack were lifereneier of this city. Behind Lavack were lifereneier of the city. LOOKING FOR NEW GROUNDS. Abell, Byrue, and Baralo Inspect Various Sites in Brooklys.

The officials of the Brooklyn Baseball Club are working hard to secure new grounds, but it is a difficult task to decide in a hurry. Yesterday Messrs, Abell, Byrne, and Barnie personally inspected six different locations and did not cease deliberations until they parted at the Clarendon Hotel at 5 o'clock. It was Owner Abell's first visit to Brooklyn in almost a year, and he took an active interest in the groundhunting expedition. The Nassau electric road, of which Albert L. Johnson is President, has entered the field in this matter, and one of the road's attorneys accompanied the baseball men on their tour of inspection. The first place visited was old Washington Park, and that location brought back old memories. Abell was surprised to find the old grounds in a shape that would make it a comparatively easy matter to fix them up in time for the opening of the season, and expressed nimself as being more in favor of that place than any other. He told a Sun reporter that he had consulted with the Litchfield estate about the property, but no itions on either side had been made as yeu.

The plot just in the rear of Washington Park inspected, together with Ambrose was also inspected, together with Ambrose Park and three other sites. But the baseball men seemed to think that Ambrose Park was a trifle too far out of the way. President Byrne said that it was a mistake to believe that the club could decide on a ground in a few days. "There are so many details to be looked after," said he, "that we must go slowly. We must consider the best way to accommodate the public to and from the grounds, and also better our own position, if possible. We have some sites in view, and if we can make certain arrangements we will move. If we cannot, we will stay at Eastern Park until something turns up."

will stay at Eastern Park until something turns up."

Abeil said openly that he favored the Washington Park site, but declined to give any particulars of the deals under way. President Johnson of the Nassau road is anxious to have the Brockiyns play ball on the line of his railway, and in time may offer some inducement. The Brockiyn magnates said last night that they would not make a definite decision until after the League meeting next week.

Abeil returned from a trip to Newbort resterday, and, when asked about The Sun's story of the row in the League, said:

"I will not den, it, nor will I affirm it. We are not looking for a basebail war, but if it is forced upon us we are ready to fight. I hardly believe, though that the 'Big Five' will precipitate any trouble. As far as the schedule is concerned, I am willing to adopt it without looking at it. In fact I think all of the League clubs should display their confidence in President Young by an affirmative mail vote sent to him before the meeting next week."

No Training Ground Selected for the New

According to Manager Joyce the New York Club has not selected the training ground for spring practice. The fact that the men will be ordered to report in this city in less than three that all arrangements will be perfected when the players are ready to begin work. In regard to Lakewood, the manager says he has spoken to a number of persons about the New Jersey resort as a training ground, and all claim that a better place could not be secured. It is the intention of Joyce to visit Lakewood before next Wednesday, when he will visit Haitimore at the time the spring meeting of the National League convenes.

Just what Joyce will do should there he another snow storm in the mean time he refuses to say. It would compel him to postpone the Lakewood trip until about March 1 or even later. The Crack Troopers Faratah Good Spor

The picturesque and popular troopers of Squadron A held their annual games at the Armory, Ninety-fourth street and Madison avenue, last night. The galleries overlook ing the tanbark arena were througed with a brilliant gathering of women in dainty costumes and men in military or civilian dress. As a social function the affair took high rank, while the competitive and drill features rounded off a pleasant entertainment. One of the most enjoyable features of the evening was the classic programme of music furnished by the Squadron Band in the intervals between the stirring events set for decision on the tanbark. The leader rose to the occasion in captivating style, and after opening with the special Squadron march, he ran the gamut of four operas and several other The tournament began with a troop drill by selected men commanded by Major Ros. The men turned out in their handsome dress unform to gray, trimmed with black and gold, and carried full equipment. The drill made a decided hit and roused the onlockers to frequent demonstrations of approval. The charges from end to end of the areas were especially stirring, and the troopers retired anild salvos of applause. "Head cutting, with hurdle" was the next number on the card, and it furnished some lively sport. A healthy sized hurdle was placed at each side of the ring with an imitation head resting on the poet next the sabre arm. Each competitor was required to make the circuit three times, slicing off the bead each time his horse took a hurdle. As the horses had to be ridden bareback, there were naturally several swerves and misses, but no man retired without at least one decapitation to his credit. Premier honors went to Corporal E. C. Parrish, Troop 3, who fenced like a steeplechaser, and left a big swath of enemies on the tanbark. William D. Judson, Troop 2, also roste and fenced well, and he secured second place.

The "riding-double" act created general interest and amusement. The conditions called for one man to be mounted, the other to mount in the rear at a walk, trot, and gallop within one circuit of the ring. Each pair then changed places and reseated. First place was awarded to Sergeant William C. cammans and Corporal A. Wendt, Troop 1, the next pair in order of merit being Privates A. G. Dickinson, Jr., and H. M. Cowperthwait, Troop 1.

After a side-splitting contest the potato race resulted in a cleave with Private W. S. Conduit, Troop 2, second. A Cossack drill, a burdle race with two riders back to back on each horse, a low reach competition, a novelty race, and a medice completed the lengthy programme.

NEWS OF THE WHEELMEN.

Gideon May Resign the Chairmanship of the L. A. W. Hacing Board, There is considerable speculation among wheelmen in relation to the selection of the next Chairman of the National Racing Board of the L. A. W. President Potter wishes George D. Gideon of Philadelphia, the present incumbent, to remain in office, but a member of the League who was in Philadelphia on Wednesday and in consultation with Gideon said yesterday that the latter stated he will not accept the office for another term. Gideon has be well for the last year, and alleges that his health will not allow him to serve for another term. With Gidson out of the race it is likely that didate for the office. His long experience in racing matters makes him eminently fitted for the place. It is said that Fred Gerlach of Calcago will be a candidate in the event of Gideon positively refusing to serve for another term.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—Australian sporting advices received here state that at the championship meeting of the League of Victoria Wheelmen, held at Melbourne, Jan. 18, the one-mile championship event went to Ken Lewis, the colonial flyer, whose time was 2 minutes 27–3.5 seconds. Martin, the American, failed to qualify in his trial heat. The race for the League of Victoria Wheelmen's cup—two miles—was won by A. E. Middleton (160 yards), and his time was 4 minutes 39–3.5 seconda. Parsons, the ex-champion, who started from scratch, was defeated by a wheel. Arithur Richardson, the American cyclist, finished on Jan. 13 his ride from Coolgardie to Adelaids. The roads were very rough, but he managed to complete the journey of 1,500 miles in thirty days, thus averaging fifty miles aday.

Old Penn and Columbia Likely to Be Barred Out on the Hudson,

New Haven, Feb, 18.-Cornell's decision to allow Yale to enter the Cornell-Harvard boat race on the Hudson River was received at Vale o-day with gratification. The New Haven authorities are emphatic in their determination not to allow Yale to row in a race in which are entered more than three crews. Although Cornell wishes to secure the admission of the University of Pennsylvania and Columbia into the race, Yale will decline the proposition, and it has been asserted by Harvard representatives in recent Yals-Harvard conferences that Harvard will also decline to allow the other two universities to enter. No official word has as yet been received from Cornell. Yale is willing to accept either of the dates suggested by Cornell—June 28 or July 2.

Cambailder, Feb. 18.—Harvard and Yale to admit Fennsylvania and Cornell into the Hudson River race rests with the Athletic Committee. River race rests with the Athletic Committee. River race from the committee will accede to the wishes of the rowing men, and also that the feeling of the latter is decidedly against having Columbia and Pennsylvania in the race, not from any prejudice against these institutions, but simply to avert any entanglements with more colleges in rowing.

Rowing News, The Varuna Boat Club has twenty-two men in gymnasium training. Judge Tigne, captain of the dub, wants to enter an intermediate four-cared anell crew, a senior double, and a jumor double in the Hari-m and Passaio regattas in the spring, provided there is no clashing of dates, between the two organizations.
